By the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, Guardian of the Realm of Great Britain, &c

A PROCLAMATION,

CAROLINE R. C. R.

WHEREAS the Parliament ſtands prorogued to Thurſday the Twenty fifth Day of this Inſtant November, We with the Advice of his Majeſty's Privy Council, do hereby publiſh and declare, That the ſaid Parliament ſhall be further prorogued, on the ſaid Twenty fifth Day of November, to Friday the One and twentieth Day of January next enſuing; and We have given Order to the Chancellor of Great Britain to prepare a Commiſſion for proroguing the ſame accordingly: And We do hereby further declare our Will and Pleaſure to be, That the ſaid Parliament ſhall, on the ſaid One and twentieth Day of January next, be held and ſit for the Diſpatch of divers weighty and important Affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeſſes, and the Commiſſioners for Shires and Burghs of the Houſe of Commons, are hereby required to give their Attendance accordingly at Weſtminſter, on the ſaid One and twentieth Day of January next.

Given at the Court at Kenſington the Twenty fourth Day of November, in the Tenth Year of his Majeſty's Reign.

GOD ſave the KING.

Stockholm, Nov. 9. Count Teſſin, and Meſſ. Ghedda, Neres, and Celſing, Counſellors of the Chancery, are making Intereſt to ſucceed M. Cedercreutz, who was Secretary of State, but is now made Preſident of the Council of Reviſion. Count Horn, who had not been Abroad for ſome Days on Account of a ſlight Indiſpoſition, is now ſomewhat better, and was Yeſterday at Court, and in the Senate. Senator Cronhielm is ſo ill of a Fever, that the Phyſicians give no hopes of his Recovery. General Armfeldt, who was Commander in Chief in Finland, died there laſt Week. Count Lynar having obtained leave of his Daniſh Majeſty to make a Tour to Copenhagen on his private Affairs, ſet out from hence for that Place on the 29th paſt.

Copenhagen, Nov. 24, N. S. An Enquiry having been made here into the Conduct of M. Jacobi (whom the King of Denmark had raiſed to the Dignity of a Counſellor of Juſtice and Treaſurer of his Privy Purſe) he appears to have been guilty of great Miſdemeanours and Frauds in his Office. The King however has pardoned him ſo far as not to take away his Life or Honour; but he is turned out of his Poſt, and all his Papers and Effects are ſeized. Lieutenant General Arnold, the preſent Governour of Rendsberg, is appointed to ſucceed Lieutenant General Romeling lately deceaſed, as Commander in chief of his Daniſh Majeſty's Forces in the Kingdom of Norway. It is thought the Government of Rendsberg is not yet diſpoſed of, but that General Scholten ſtands the faireſt for it. M. Bernſdorff, the Daniſh Envoy at the Court of Dreſden, is come hither by the King's Permiſſion upon his private Affairs, and waited Yeſterday for the firſt Time on his Daniſh Majeſty.

Hague, Dec. 1, N. S. M. Slingelandt, the Grand Penſionary of Holland, died about Five of the Clock this Morning, ſo ſuddenly, that the Servant who conſtantly attended him a-Nights, had barely Time to call his Lady to be a Witneſs of his expiring.

Dublin, November 20.

Yeſterday being the Birth-Day of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Wales, the Great Guns were fired at the Barracks and anſwered by Vollies from the Regiments in Garriſon which were drawn out upon Oxmantown-Green: At Noon there was a ſplendid Appearance of the Nobility and other Perſons of Diſtinction to compliment the Lords Juſtices upon this Occaſion; and at Night there was a Play given by their Excellencies for the Entertainment of the Ladies.

Whitehall, October 26, 1736.

Whereas George Kelly, a Priſoner in the Tower of London, made his Eſcape from thence Yeſterday, as is ſuppoſed between the Hours of Seven and Eight in the Evening: Her Majeſty is graciouſly pleaſed to promiſe a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds to any Perſon or Perſons that ſhall apprehend and ſeize, or cauſe to be apprehended and ſeized, the ſaid George Kelly, ſo that he may be ſecured, and proceeded againſt according to Law. HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

I do hereby promiſe to pay the further Sum of One Hundred Pounds to any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall apprehend and ſeize, or cauſe to be apprehended and ſeized the ſaid George Kelly, ſo that he may be ſecured and proceeded againſt according to Law.

Leiceſter.

The ſaid George Kelly is about Forty Eight Years of Age, about Five Foot Ten Inches high, fair Complexion, large gray Eyes, a broad full Face, good Teeth, but his two upper ones long and broad, his Hair very gray, and all the upper Part of his Head bald, he is ſtrait, and his Legs long but in-kneed, with ſmall Calves, his Hands and Feet are long and narrow.
